The Digital Closet

How the Internet Became Straight

Join us for a compelling discussion with author Alexander Monea, where we'll delve into how the internet is silencing 2SLGBTQIA+ voices!

We look forward to seeing you there. You can register for the book talk here.

Introducing Vivian Lee

We are excited to announce that Vivian Lee (she/her) has joined ODLAN as the Director of Education & Strategy!

Vivian Lee is an education management and technology specialist, with 10+ years of experience in organization leadership, edtech curriculum design, and course architecture in the private, public, and non-profit sectors.

New Project Alert!

We are proud to announce our latest project, ‘Digital Resilience: Addressing the Rise of Transphobic Online Hate through Community-Based Research’.

We will be gathering data on the experiences of Two Spirit, trans, nonbinary, and gender nonconforming (2STNGN) professionals with online hate, investigating strategies to address it, and assessing the feasibility of creating a tracking and reporting tool.

This project has been made possible in part by the Government of Canada.

The area where we primarily work, known as Tkaronto, has been cared for by the Anishinabek Nation, the Haudenosaunee Confederacy, and the Huron-Wendat. It is now home to many First Nation, Inuit, and Métis communities. We acknowledge the current treaty holders, the Mississaugas of the Credit First Nation.
